At The Steel Ice Center , we offer specialized off-ice programs to assist our figure skaters in reaching their full athletic potential. These programs will help the skater enhance what they have accomplished and reach new goals in their skating. Below is a list of the classes offered:

Off Ice Training

This class is designed to assist the skater achieve overall fitness, balance, injury prevention skills and to propel your skater to their most athletic self. In this class skaters will work on strength, agility and endurance.

Mondays 1pm-2pm
Fridays 1pm-2pm

Pilates

In this class skaters will work to strengthen and lengthen the muscles, strengthen the core, teach proper breathing, relaxation, balance and body awareness. These exercises will work the deep core muscles, with an emphasis on correct body alignment and stretching . They increase both strength and flexibility, without adding bulk.

Tuesdays 1pm-2pm

Off-Ice Jump Class

This class will assist skaters to develop strong jumping skills through vertical lift, rotation, and technique exercises. Skaters will also work on landing positions, proper body alignment in all aspects of the jump, strengthening air position and building faster rotation.

Wednesdays 1pm-2pm

Yoga with Connie

Connie's program is designed to focus on postural alignment in skating moves while incorporating breathing techniques and stress management for competitions, tests and shows. This program will include care of muscles assisting with growth spurts, soreness and fatigue associated with training and protection from injury. Skaters will gain the knowledge that can be utilized on and off the ice.

Thursdays 1pm-2pm

Our qualified instructors provide the best instruction to help your skater achieve their goals!
